Deeds Show That the Property Was Transferred to Mrs. Dewey and in Turn to the Admirai's Son Two Days Before Title Was Made to Crawford.

Washington, Nov. 23 .- An interest ing feature in connection with the three Dewey transfer deeds now on file with the recorder of deeds was noted yesterday afternoon. The first deed filed, that by which George Dewey et ux transfers the Rhode Island avenue property to John W. Crawford, al-though dated Nov. 14, was not ac-knowledged before a notary public un-til the 16th inst.

The second deed, by which Crawford transferred the property to Mrs. Dewey, and the third deed, recorded yesterday, by which George Dewey and Mrs. Dewey turn over the title to George G. Dewey, were not, according to the dates as set forth in the papers, acknowledged the 14th inst. It other words, it would seem that Craw-ford transferred the property to Mrs Dewey, and the latter in turn to George G. Dewey, two days before Admira Dewey transferred the title to Craw-

Admiral Dewey is deeply wounded by the criticism of his transfer of the gift home, and is tempted to go abroad He talked freely to a reporter who called upon him, and in the course of his lengthy explanation spoke of the greeting that was given him when he arrived home, and proceeded:
"Mrs. Dewey understood better than I did the feelings of the people and at first declined to permit the house to be transferred to ber. She did consent nly after an arrangement had been effected whereby not only the house but her entire personal fortune, which as you are aware, is considerable, was ultimately to go to my son George. "I would never have believed it pos-sible," Admiral Dewey continued, with tears in his eyes, "that the American people, who made such a hero of me two months ago, could have in this brief period so introd upon me as to fill colonies of the papers with the worst of abuse. I asked no idolatry:

I asked no appliance. I had merely
